A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. H. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated Golden Medical Discovery. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed all medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them remedies of known composition. By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his medicines are of such excellence that they are not afraid to submit them to the closest scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, indigestion, biliousness and all catarrhal diseases, wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small circular containing the names of the various standard medical works, of all the different schools of medicine, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending a postal note, upon the letter to Dr. H. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. Thus the little book will be secured that is, for a small price, contains the names of the various standard medical works, of all the different schools of medicine, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. ## CIRCULAR TO EMPLOYEES.

Mr. Clarence H. Mackey, President of the Postal Telegraph Cable Company, has issued the following statement:
New York, October 14, 1907.
"The Postal Telegraph Cable Co., appreciative of the loyal spirit displayed by the employees who remained faithful and by those who came to its aid when so many old employees abandoned their duties, believes that this loyal spirit may be strengthened by association into a powerful agency for maintaining good relations between the company and its employees and the prevention of such movements as culminated in the occurrence of last August, and it is therefore decided to form an association of those employees who have faith in the disposition of the company to deal equitably with them who are opposed to strikes, commotion or coercive measures and who recognize the plain truth that their own prosperity is bound up in the prosperity of the company. Such an association will be called The Telegraph Employees Association, and its object will be to secure to the company a loyal working force and to its members employment undisturbed by factions seeking to coerce or embarrass or harass the company or its employees, and its further object will be to render financial aid to its employees when sick or disabled and also in case of death. The directions in which such an association may extend its activities for the benefit of its members may easily be seen. The company contemplates that this association may be made the means of remedying local complaints by affording a ready means by which such complaints may be properly considered and also that it may be turned to the purpose of self help and the advancement of its members, especially educationally and materially, all of which objects will have the hearty support of the company."

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER.

All afternoon Sunday neighbors heard a baby, now prattling, now crying, in the home of Mrs. Philomine Trinzzone, in Union Hill, N. J. Toward evening neighbors entered the open door, for the child was crying piteously.
The baby heard the footsteps and broke into a gurgling laugh as they entered the dining room. There sat the baby on the floor beside the body of its mother. Its toys were scattered about. The mother was dead, her neck having been hacked with a knife. She had probably lain dead for several hours, and during all the time the baby had laughed and cried by her side.
How the woman came by her death the police could not tell. She had been struck from behind a vicious blow that had almost severed her head from her body. There had been no struggle, for everything about the room was in order and the woman had lain as she fell.
Mrs. Trinzzone conducted a boarding house for laborers in the neighborhood. She was twenty-four years old and good looking, after the style of southern Italy. Where her husband was one of her boarders could tell. Five of the boarders returned to the house as the police were taking an inventory. They were all placed under arrest as witnesses.
They said that during the noonday meal Antonio Serizano, the sixth boarder, had found fault with the meal, and that when the others had left the table he and the housewife were still engaged in a bitter quarrel. He could not be found Sunday night and the police are searching for him.
